From the Lodge Governor

January Message

2014 is behind us and a new year is beginning. We have had a great and successful year. We at Lodge 764 want to thank each of our members for the great year and here's looking towards another great year.

I would like to thank our WOTM for all the great things that each of you have done throughout the year. A special thank you for making sure the breakfast with Santa provided all our kids with a great smile with the wonderful time and gifts they received from Santa. Also a big thank you for your donation of the bikes to the Boys and Girls club.

Our Man of the Month is Jack Johnson. Jack is not with us now but his presence will always be here. When ever Jack came in he always made us smile with one of his songs or sayings. Jack joined LOOM in 2001. He will be missed.

I hope everyone enjoyed the Buc's road trip. We look forward to next seasons trip. Thank you to all our members who continuously sponsor new members into their lodge. It is because of you that are above our quota.

On behalf of the Officers and members of the Lodge, I want to thank the Home Depot for providing the materials and labor to landscape around the Tiki bar. It makes a big improvement.

Just because the holidays are over doesn't mean the Moose is quiet. We now play the card game Euchre at 12 noon every Thursday, and every Monday at 6:00 PM we have Texas Hold 'Em. Of course, we still have the Queen of Hearts on Wednesday and Meat Bingo on Thursday, while Friday and Saturday is live entertainment for your listening and singing pleasure.

I want to end this with a saying "Be proud to show your Moose Card".

Fraternally, Gene Herbst

Senior Regent's January Message

Pat Ballauer

The children's Breakfast with Santa Claus took place on December 14; there were lots of gifts under the tree and lots of smiling faces. The remaining gifts were donated to Toys for Tots. The bicycles we received from the Englewood Moose were donated to the North Port Boys and Girls Club. Thank you Englewood for your generous donation.

On December 20 we honored our newest College of Regents Collegian.

We are all looking forward to the New Year. We are always open to any suggestion you might have as to what we can do to make the lodge a fun place to visit.

WISHING YOU A HEALTHY AND HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Respectfully submitted, Pat Ballauer,
Senior Regent

Woman of the Month - December

Congratulations to our Chapter's Woman of the Month for December 2014. She serves as the Chapter's Chaplain. Thanks for all you do for us, Kristie Frein.

The Tiki Bar has new exterior landscaping and it makes a big difference.

Thanks to the Home Depot for donating the material (timbers, mulch, weed barrier and Florida-friendly plants) plus, with help from eight members of the North Port Moose, the labor to install it,

Take a look next time you're here at your Lodge.

Happy New Year!

I Hope everyone had a Merry Christmas. We started off December by presenting a check to Rita Bertler for Dollars for Mammograms.
