"The Friendliest Lodge There Is"

2015

Jr Grad Regent receives
Green Cap

Pat Ballauer

The "Green Cap" is awarded to Senior Regents of Chapters who earn the "Award of Achievement".

In addition to Chapter committee duties, She must submit completed Quarterly Community Service Reports, International and Novice Co-Worker Nominations, and all other Chapter reports required by Moose International as instructed.

She must attend Board of Officer's Meetings, Committee Activity Night Meetings and Business Meetings of the Chapter. The Senior Regent must attend the Annual Executive Session. The Green Cap is invested at the State Annual Conference.

Pat was invested in her Green Cap on September 13 at the FBMA convention in Orlando.

Congratulations Pat, and thanks for all the work you do for the Chapter and the Lodge.

Administrator's Message

Ken Lipp

September has passed us quickly but what a busy one it was with a promise that October will be just as full with events.

Don't forget to come out on Sundays to watch your favorite football team play. We also have specials from our kitchen that Wayne has put together. If you have not tried Wayne's pizza you are missing something good. Remember our kitchen is open for lunch and dinner daily. Make sure you check out our menu. Stop in the Lodge for Member Appreciation Day on October 3. Free burgers & hot dogs from 6-10 PM with Karaoke by Gil & Rhonda.

We had a great turn out for the WOTM's Nosh. I hope everyone continues to come out and show support to the WOTM. You will not leave hungry for sure. Make sure you check our calendar of events for all the good events happening by the Women of the Moose.

Hope to see you at Queen of Hearts on Wednesday and Meat Bingo on Thursday.

Fraternally, Ken Lipp—Administrator

From the Lodge Governor

October Message

Al Reeves

Hello again. Our lodge was well represented at the semi-annual State convention at the Rosen Hotel held in Orlando in September. It was a great success.

The Boys and Girls Club of North Port has been presented with a check for $1,000 from our lodge. It is our Lodge membership's generosity that makes us the top sponsor of our city's youth club for the second year in a row. Thanks to all who contributed.

My choice for Man of the Month is Henry Rivero.

Our annual golf outing is scheduled for Oct.31 at the Bobcat Trail Golf Club. See you there.

Fraternally, Governor Al Reeves

Pat Ballauer

I would like to thank Venice Collegian Sharon Onstott for serving as my investing officer on Sunday, September 13 when I was invested with the Green Cap during the 2015 Convocation Ceremony in Orlando.

Thanks to our Chapter for meeting all requirements for the Award of Achievement 2014-15 Chapter year.

Remember that you can still vote for the person you'd like to see get a pie in the face. Votes are $1 each and the voting jars are on the bar.

Respectfully Submitted, Patricia Ballauer
