Jr Graduate Regent's Message

In April the Lodge lost our friend and Administrator, Ken Lipp. But his presence is still felt every moment in the Lodge that he cared about so very much. Many people don't realize he was often there by 6 AM making sure everything was ready for the day ahead. He loved seeing the Lodge filled with people having a good time, which is how he measured success. Our thoughts and prayers are with Angie and Ken's family for their loss and hope the embrace of many friends brings some comfort. We'll never forget someone who gave us so much to remember.

THANK YOU! Due to participation in our fundraising events, in April we were able to take two comfort bags, four toiletry kits, and nine snack pack bags to the Mid-Year Conference in Orlando to be distributed to Ronald McDonald Houses. We also held an Easter Egg Hunt for children and grandchildren of members and employees and residents at Quality Health Care Center.

Installation of new officers took place on Monday, April 24. Installed officers were Kristie Frein as Junior Grad Regent, Deb Humphries as Secretary-Treasurer, and Angie Dileo as Recorder. Committee Chairmen include Pat Ballauer, Pat Riehl, Kathy Carr, Amy Havlin, and Kim Willis. We all look forward to serving the Women of the Moose as volunteers supporting the Lodge, Mooseheart, Moosehaven, and the community.

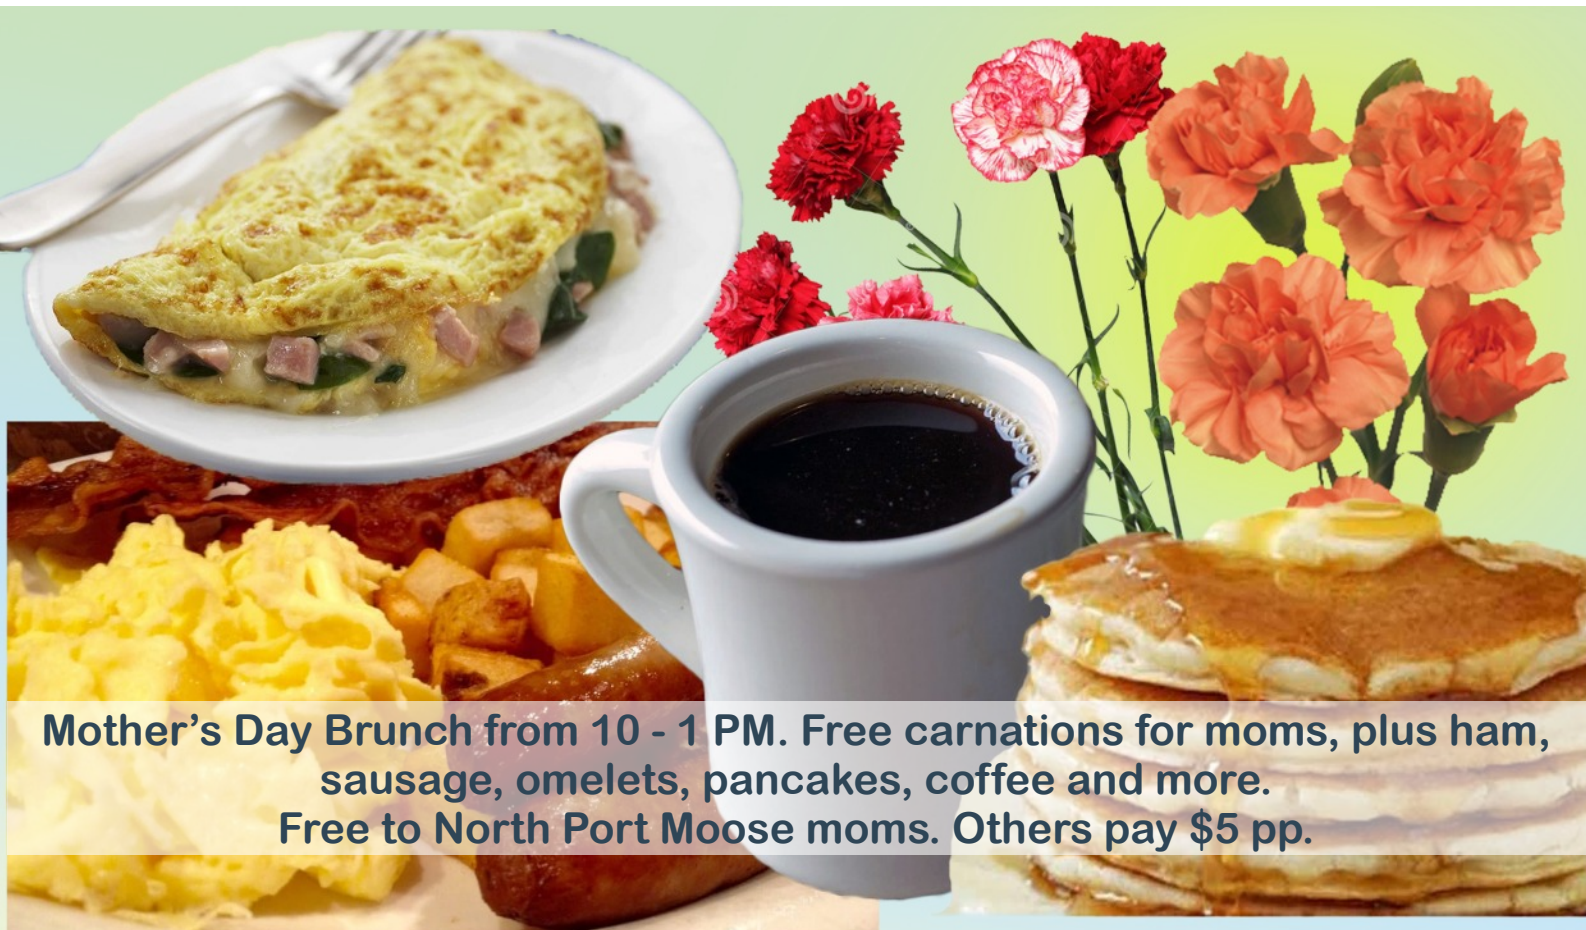

The Women of the Moose Breakfasts will be on hold for a few months but will be back this fall.

The tickets are on sale at the bar for the firepit table. Someone is going to be a very happy winner on Father's Day!

Join us at our general meetings at 6:30 on the first and third Tuesdays of every month, we would love to see you there.

Fraternally, Kristie Frein

Ken Lipp: Feb 6, 1947 - April 15, 2017

The North Port Moose lost a friend and an outstanding member of the Moose fraternity last month. Brother Ken Lipp passed away on April 15, 2017. At a memorial for Ken on April 18, his family, friends and fellow Moose members said goodbye to Ken in a room filled to standing room capacity.

Ken served the Lodge and Moose with distinction. In addition to being a two-term governor he was a Moose Legionnaire and had earned his Moose Fellowship degree. During his terms as governor he was awarded the Governor's Award of Excellence by Moose International and was responsible for the Lodge efforts toward the Premier Lodge Award for 2012-2013.

As the Lodge Administrator Ken was especially proud that the Lodge was current with all obligations to Moose International as well as its day-to-day financial commitments. Not content with the workload required of an administrator, Brother Lipp served on the board of the Florida Bermuda Moose Association—District 22, going through the chairs and elected District President last fall. Ken left the Lodge in much better financial and fraternal shape than he found it. He sponsored 279 members into the Moose and earned Life Membership for his efforts. Thanks Brother Ken Lipp, you will be missed.
